For your meditation this Lord's Day:

"There is another kind of "fear and trembling" (Phil. 2:12), one that, so far from diminishing the assurance of faith, the more firmly establishes it. This happens when believers, considering the examples of divine wrath executed upon the ungodly as warnings to them, take special care not to provoke God's wrath against them by the same offenses; or, when inwardly contemplating their own misery, learn to depend wholly upon the Lord, without whom they see themselves more unstable and fleeting than any wind." (John Calvin, Institutes 3.2.22)
